A Letter From J. A. Noonan.

MILWAUKEE, Saturday Morning, Aug. 28, '58.

Gen. Kinnear:—Will you allow me to say through your paper, that the News of this morning is in the mark in its statement that I was instructed to bring out Jas. S. Brown, Esq., as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature of this State, and that I have been and am now of the impression that either E. G. Ryan, W. P.

Lyons, or Jas. S. Brown, could probably, if nominated, be elected over Mr. Putnam; and I would cheerfully support either of them, or any other Democrat who has not been tainted with the frauds and villainies which have disgraced this State for the past few years; but at the same time I have also thought that Forty Thieves is not yet sufficiently understood in this district, to prevent its controlling the action of the convention, and in view of this condition of affairs, my candidate for the Democratic Convention is either one of the following persons:

JACKSON HANCOCK, J. R. SHAW, BRAD KIL-

BOURN, W. P. LYONS, SAM. HALL, A. F. FEAR-

LESS, or BRIAN BROWN, and if W. A. BARSTOW is a resident of this district, I would even prefer him to either of them.

I think this the most effective course to pursue to run Forty Thieves so far into the ground, that we should not hear from it again, at least for a few years to come. I want the Democratic candidate, this year, to have his cam-aigne strongly tinged with the enmity of La Croix Bouds, and if there should be a little of the scent of school lands, supplemental returns,

Members Bank of Bridgeport, Ct., or De Stoebank in Nebraska, thrown in by way of adding weight to the campaign, it would give our Democratic candidate, who, like myself, have no other political ambition or purpose to serve than to have our State well governed and relieved of the unwar-table reputation it has obtained from the mismanagement of bad men, simple duty to attend to their private affairs, and make such conscience as the editor of the News pay their modest debts, and perhaps have them properly punished for their embezzlements.

As the Forty Thieves seem to be very much exercised now-days, as to my political action, allow me to say for their benefit:—For I think for grounded, no man can outside of their organization, who knows me, has any doubt about my position; that whenever the Democratic party brings forward a nominee for office, who is "honorable, capable and faithful to the Constitution," he will receive my support, regardless of personal relations or other outside considerations. But the day has gone by when I will vote for a villain, brought forward to carry out villainous projects and purposes, simply because he has managed himself into a nomination at the hands of a convention of the party to which I am attached. Democracy, in my judgment, is very greatly misled by the course of the "people," and a Democrat consequently, to be convinced to adhere to a government by the people, or in other words, a Democratic government; is that which confers the greatest amount of good upon the greatest number of those who live under it, and enjoy its protection.

Now when an organization to carry out the principles of democracy degenerates into a cabal of rob, plunder, and bring into bad repute the great mass of the people—and maintains that a man in considered a sound democrat and a sound party man, just in proportion as he upholds publically and villainously—that is, instead of trying to protect the interests of the greatest mass of the people, and secure to the Army of Labor the legiti-mate rewards of its industry, your "Bastards" and Kinnear's and Ryan's and men of that ilk must be taken care of through the machinery of bogus banks and Railroads, and productive industry robbed and paralyzed—and as has been the case several times in this State within the past six years, and as is the case now—the fundamental principles of the party are broken, and brought into contempt. That Democrat is either a knave or a fool who will stand quietly by and uphold or approve of such things. Messrs. Kinneary, BARSTOW, & Co. have been mainly interested in bringing the present unfortunate and disgraced condition upon the Democratic party in this State, in perverting the object of this organization and falsifying its principles.

My idea is to let them run and control the party until the great mass of the people who belong to it get to understand what it is, and what has made it this. This time is not far distant.

Perhaps the coming election may bring them to appreciate it.

Another winter's investigation may be ne-

At that time too, Kinnear was the President of the La Croix Road—the Road was in the full tide of successful experiment—it was the controlling monopoly of the State, and Kinnear was King of Wisconsin. Since he put the Road in the New, La Croix stock has come down from 85 to 40 cents on the dollar, he has been dropped from the Presidency of the Legislature of the State for corruption, and his reputation for a great while connected with the head of the greatest highway of the age in which he lives; and he is now floundering and struggling to get out from under, or out from him, the land of infamy that rests upon him. JACKSON HANCOCK, at that time too, was a member of the State Senate, and of the City Council, and occupied the necessary and not unenviable position of the whilop-defender of and sanctified apologist for the various crimes that might be got up by Kinnear or Barstow and their co-conspirators in State or City matters. Since his venture in the New he has been beaten as a candidate for Congress, in this district when the District gave the Democratic Presidential ticket, a majority has been dropped from the Secretaryship of the La Croix Company, and the Director of the La Croix and the Root River Valley Roads, has disposed of the proceeds of $200,000 of La Croix Bonds in a manner that he chooses to be "purposely ignorant" of, and in bribery and corruption is only looked upon as second to Kinnear. SHAW, at the time of the purchase, was U. S. District Attorney, and was selling along with the office holdings, gambling, and getting trusted by the people,
